

Nurse-Midwifery & Dual Nurse-Midwifery FNP
Textbook List
Fall 2023 First-Year Students

- Part-time students in the first year of the specialty will be in 6010 (online), 6045 (online), and 6811 (onsite on Thursdays). The full curriculum can be found here.
- Full-time students will be in all the classes described below. The full curriculum can be found here.
- Class Schedule:
 - Synchronous classes for midwifery and dual students in the Fall (6012, 6805, 6810, 6811, and 6812) will be each Tuesday (all day and evening labs) and Thursday (all day) through the semester. Several lab classes will be held on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday, and these dates will be available by mid-summer. Please make sure you have child and/or pet care for Tuesdays and Thursdays.
 - Asynchronous classes for midwifery and dual students in the Fall include: 6045, 6010, and 6011. These classes will meet online in an asynchronous format.

The list below includes only books we know will be used in the courses. We will not know until mid-summer if some of these books have a new edition coming out for fall. The books on this list will be used and please check back in June and July for more detailed information on the schedule and the books.
